Description

This property was once owned by BC's Gold Commissioner of the day, and due to the bend in the creek, was deemed an excellent spot to find gold! Today it's covered in a variety of trees mostly cedar and fir, with 2165' of frontage on Cayoosh Creek. Duffey Lake and Joffre Lakes Provincial Parks sit between Pemberton and the property...and if you are into the back-country, this corridor has some convenient camping, alpine hiking and skiing with spectacular vistas and steep mountainsides. The roughly 13 acres on the west side of the Duffey Lake Rd are mostly flat with some small creeks running through some areas. The owner has put in a small bridge and driveway to access a larger cleared area away from the road. Only 8 private parcels between Mt. Currie and Lillooet on Duffey Lake Road!
